

Orion

The Union

No lie when I was young,
Night sky meant more than even the sun,
Star candles burned bright,
I lay there counting each one.No matter what life threw my way,
They were right there in the same place,
Now she's gone I can't see for clouds in my face.Show me Orion,
I don't have a clue where I am,
I'm helpless, I'm trying,
My compass was snatched from my hand,
From my hand.
Cold night clearer than day,
Snow bathed in moonlight where my path once lay,
I wonder how I ended up so far astray.Show me Orion,
I don't know which way I should face,
Oh, my radar is broken,
Like I'm lost without a trace.Show me Orion,
Come light up my way,
Throw me to the lions,
Torn up, in disarray
Oh, show me Orion,
I'm helpless, I'm trying,
I'm lost without a trace,
Without a trace.
