Bricks

Bombshell Rocks

My friends and I, we share the same goals
Had the same goals since I was 16
We've got the same kind if fighter soul
Come and look, it burns like gasolineSee the end of another day
The night arrives erasing the shadows
The night arrives it keeps the light away
And I'm tired, that's the only thing I knowCome watch a generation
Bricks fly when they tear the place down
The course is set, the path is chosenMy friends and I, we all feel the same
Live a life that is plain and simple
Can't take this pride and replace it with shame
Can't lock us in or send us to HellI feel fear as the years pass by
I feel fear as I watch the scenario
I close the door and I say goodbye
When I know it's time for me to goCome watch a generation
Bricks fly when they tear the place down
The course is set, the path is chosenCome watch a generation
Bricks fly when they tear the place down
Ain't gonna stop before the dream is brokenWe're getting of this road going nowhere
We just stop and turn around
This dead end track won't get us anywhere
Always looking for a place with fertile ground
A place with fertile groundCome watch a generation
(Come watch a generation)
Come watch a generation
(Come watch a generation)
Come watch a generation
(Come watch a generation)
Ain't gonna stop before the dream is brokenCome watch a generation
Bricks fly when they tear the place down
The course is set, the path is chosenCome watch a generation
Bricks fly when they tear the place down
Ain't gonna stop before the dream is broken

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/