Something Beautiful

Tracy Bonham

Light weight, too straight, no reaction
I dont care if Im not in fashion
I will follow you, I will follow youIts hearts up, heads down, puddle of red wine
You get back up and you face the climb
I will follow youSomething in me almost breaksBut I wait, Im sinkin' in my skin
And I wait, my heart is wearin' thin
Cause Im looking for somethin' beautifulYou cut me up and you make me bleed
A sad stained heart hangin' on my sleeve
Ill still follow you, I will follow youAnd you say, Look up, look up, look all around you
Cant you see the love that surrounds
The very soul of you?Something in me almost breaksBut I wait, Im sinkin' in my skin
And I wait, my heart is wearin' thin
Cause Im looking for something beautifulAnd I pray for it to come right in
Therell come a day, my heart is wearin' thin
That I fall upon something beautiful
Something meaningfulYou stick your soul out risk it all
Your fearless beauty breaks your fall
Something in me knows theres something more
And its so close I wanna runBut I wait, Im sinkin' in my skin
And I wait, my heart is wearin' thin
Cause Im looking for something beautifulAnd I pray for it to come right in
Therell come a day, my heart is wearin' thin
When I fall upon something beautiful
Something beautiful, something meaningful
Something beautiful, something meaningful
