Not the One

Kt Mulholland

You could call me an ocean, but Iâ€™m not that deep
You could say me a mess, but Iâ€™m yours to keep
You could call me a river going out to sea
You could call me a liar but youâ€™re stuck with me

And itâ€™s the little things that I do to you
And itâ€™s the little ways that I move through you

But Iâ€™m not the one
That went and kissed my frown
Tore my defenses down
Turned my world upside
Iâ€™m not the one
Who took my breath away
Knew how to make my day
No Iâ€™m not not not not not not not the one
No Iâ€™m not not not not not not not the oneâ€¦
Iâ€™m not the one

I was what you could call a means to an end
You were only the version that I told my friends
I was more than surprised when you stepped up to bat
Now weâ€™re saying forever and Iâ€™m fine with that

And itâ€™s the little things that you do to me
And itâ€™s the little ways that you make me see

That Iâ€™m not the one
That went and kissed my frown
Tore my defenses down
Turned my world upside
Iâ€™m not the one
Who took my breath away
Knew how to make my day
No Iâ€™m not not not not not not not the one
No Iâ€™m not not not not not not not the oneâ€¦
Iâ€™m not the one

One more time for the heck of it
One more time for the crown

One more time for the nose bleeds
One more time, make it loud (louder, louder)
One more time for the heck of it
One more time for the crown
One more time for the nose bleeds
One more time, make it loud (louder, louder)

But Iâ€™m not the one
That went and kissed my frown
Tore my defenses down
Turned my world upside
Iâ€™m not the one
Who took my breath away
Knew how to make my day
No Iâ€™m not not not not not not the one
No Iâ€™m not not not not not not the oneâ€¦
Iâ€™m not the one
