Don't Go To Klaksvik

Leif Vollebekk

You've got the world in you
We slept again in the nude
Sky's bruised in pinks and blues
And daybreak's barely breaking throughYou awake not to know the end of it
Don't go to KlaksvikI hear those birds of dawn
Keep my mind off what I was sleeping on
The curtains by the bath are drawn
Out the windows onto the lawn
And the neighbors children step on it
Don't go to KlaksvikThe pearl up on the hill
Won't move unless you will
The fiddler takes his bow and brings
It to the heartstringsThat moor the pearl to your fingertips
Don't go to KlaksvikNever felt so foreign and free as before
You took me to your room and locked the door
There's a lot to be said for leaving things unspoken of
It's something else to leave me unawoken, love
The town sleeps soundly below
Just like a baby in sheets that grow
Half-soaked fishermen standing somewhat together
Miles from the shore in the foglamp weatherThey're calling, yes they're calling from their ships
Don't go to Klaksvik
