Last Flight Out

Plus One

I'm so scared that you will see
All the weakness inside of me
I'm so scared of letting go
That the pain I've hid will showI know you want to hear me speak
But I'm afraid that if I start to
I'll never stopI want you to know you belong in my life
I love the hope I see in your eyes
For you I would fly at least I would try
For you I'll take the last flight outI'm afraid that you will leave
As my secrets have been revealed, oh
In my dreams you'll always stay
Every breathing moment from nowI know you want to hear me speak
But I'm afraid that if I start to
I'll never stopI want you to know you belong in my life
I love the hope I see in your eyes
For you I would fly at least I would try
For you I'll take the last flight outI cannot hold back the truth no more
I let you wait too long
Although it's hard and scares me so
A life without you scares me more
Scares me more scares me more scares me moreFor you I would fly at least I would try
For you I could take the last flight outI want you to know you belong in my life
I love the hope I see in your eyes
For you I would fly at least I would try
For you I'll take the last flight out
