

Lucky Ones

Bonnie Bishop

What a beautiful surprise, I had almost stopped believing.
But I see it in your eyes, there's no denying what we're feeling.
So tell me, have you ever seen so many stars? Have you ever felt so high?
Have you ever found in someone kiss what you've been missing all your life?

Chorus:

Maybe we're the lucky ones, surest thing there ever was
I really don't believe in love, but wouldn't it be lucky if this was?
Maybe we're the lucky ones, Maybe we're the lucky ones
I'd trade everything I've ever done just to be the lucky ones

Baby take a look outside, this doesn't happen to just anyone
People search for all their lives to find the very thing we've stumbled on
I'm not saying it'll be easy, no no. I'd never ask you to change your plans
Oh and if being in love is anything like this, don't you think it'd be worth one more chance?

Chorus:

Maybe we're the lucky ones, surest thing there ever was
I really don't believe in love, but wouldn't it be lucky if this was?
Maybe we're the lucky ones, Maybe we're the lucky ones
I'd trade everything I've ever done just to be the lucky ones

Yeah

Maybe we're the lucky ones, Maybe we're the lucky ones
I'd trade everything I've ever done just to be the lucky ones
Everything I've ever done just to be the lucky ones

Yeah
