Back To Go Again

Framing Hanley

Is this really open to discuss
Maybe we should just hang it up
We were so close
They said we were so farWell we swore by now we'd have them wowed
But we're still stuck in this race
With hopes and dreams undone
When did we stop having funWe got lost somewhere they're not in
Do you remember when
We said it would never end
We won't go back down
This time around
Stop where you are and wish
Little things couldn't kill this
Count down from ten
We could be back to go againMaybe we started phoning it in
But then again the numbers didn't Quite make sense
They don't lie
Give me a thousand liesAnd this isn't a song about candy
But were still suckers the same
They fell for your lies
Each and every timeWe got lost somewhere they're not in
Do you remember when
We said it would never end
We wont back down
This time around
Stop where you are and wish
Little things couldn't kill this
Count down from ten
We could be back to go againBack to go again,againTime is like a bullet train headed off the tracks
Its never coming back
So lets grab this while we can
Its all in our handsDo you remember when
Do you remember whenDo you remember when
We said it would never end
We wont back down
This time around
Stop where you are and trust
Little things couldn't kill this
Count down from ten

We could be back to go again
