Who You Are

Unspoken

I know that look you're giving like you got something to prove cause I have walked for miles and miles in that same pair of shoes. you refuse forgiveness like its something to be earned sometimes pain's the only way that we can learn you can never fall to hard, so fast, so far that you can't get back when you're lost, where you are, it never to late, so bad, so much, that you can't change who you are, you can change who you are, you believe in freedom, but you don't know how to choose you gotta step out of your feelings that you're so afraid to lose, and everyday, you put your feet on the floor got to walk through door its never going to be easy but its all worth fighting for you can never fall to hard, so fast, so far, that you can't get back when you're lost
where you are,
its never to late, so bad, so much that you can't change who you are you can change who you are. so let the ashes fall where ever they land come back from wherever you been to the foot of the cross to the feet of Jesus
that you can't change
at the foot of the cross it changes who you are at the foot of the cross you can change who you are.

you can change.
