

I Only Like His Hat, Not Him

Flo Morrissey

Everything comes back to this
Every embrace, every perfect kiss
You try to scare me with those clenched fists
But I told you darling, I cant handle this
At least now you know
See I was telling the truth
And this world I walk trough walks trough me tooWell I only like his hat
Not him
His hat
Not him
Not him
Not him
him...Everyday I pretend
I don't see you but in the end
I'll admit in fact you are
All I see but must ignore Someday soon I'll be how I used to
In this world I walk trough walks trough me tooWell I only like his hat
Not him
Well I only like his hat
Not him
Not himYou ask me why is that
I say nothing with a false grin
False grin
False grinBut really I'm too scared
To love again
hmmm
But I love again
