

Leave Them All Behind (Demo Version)

Billy Talent

Tired of all the promises and never coming through
It's easy to pretend until they turn their back on you
And all the ones that bring you down, their colors weren't that true
And life's become a battle that you swore you'd never lose
It don't matter what went wrong this time, don't matter what went right
We're always searching for the reason why
And the longest road to find it will take many years to climb
Don't wait up for that moment to arrive
Leave them all behind
Yeah, I'm tired of all the promises and never coming through
It's easy to pretend until they turn their back on you
Yeah, and all the ones that bring you down, their colors weren't that true
And when you lose your confidence your mind plays tricks on you
It don't matter what went wrong this time, don't matter what went right
We're always searching for the reason why
And the longest road to find it will take many years to climb
We keep on getting stuck here all the time
We're gonna leave them all behind, We're gonna leave them all behind
We're gonna catch that train, the words they say couldn't stop us if they tried
We're gonna leave them all behind, We're gonna leave them all behind
We're gonna catch that train I know some day everything's gonna fall in line
I've been struck down and defeated every step along the way Become I'm your own worst enemy when nothing seems to change
You have to fail a thousand times before you get it straight
So catch me if you can 'cause I ain't leaving this to fate
It don't matter what went wrong this time, don't matter what went right
We're always searching for the reason why
And the longest road to find it will take many years to climb
We keep on getting stuck here all the time
We're gonna leave them all behind, We're gonna leave them all
behind
We're gonna catch that train, the words they say couldn't stop us if they tried
We're gonna leave them all behind, We're gonna leave them all behind
We're gonna catch that train I know some day, everything's gonna fall in line
Oh, oh, oh
Tired of all the promises and never coming through
Stop waiting for that moment to arrive
We're gonna leave them all behind, We're gonna leave them all behind
We're gonna catch that train, the words they say couldn't stop us if they tried
We're gonna leave them all behind, We're gonna leave them all behind
We're gonna catch that train I know some day, everything's gonna fall in line
We're gonna leave them all behind, We're gonna leave them all behind
We're gonna catch that train I know some day, everything's gonna fall in line

Yeah!
