

Fear of the Sky

Karnivool

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

In your own state of mind
All you fear now is won
A conscious world will spin you
In and out of time Lend your breath to broken sail
Hands up in my blunted nail
Rolling water, suck her free Surely, I can make you feel
What I'm feeling, falling in
Comfort bleeds a swollen mend
In the secrecy that is to lie Knowing in failure
Will I forge the wrong sound?
Soon I see what they mean
Living this fallacy Promised heaven, I concede
Dead, what I'm feeling, falling in
Comfort bleeds a swollen mend
In the secrecy that is to lie Stare blind at the sun
Feel the warmth in your eyes
With you in mind, with you in time
Stare blind at the sun
Feel the warmth in your head Dead, what I'm feeling, falling in
Comfort bleeds a swollen mend
In the secrecy that is to lie
That is to lie Stare blind at the sun
Feel the warmth in your eyes
With you in mind, with you in time
Stare blind at the sun
Feel the warmth in your head Stare blind at the sun
Feel the warmth in your eyes
With you in mind, with you in time
Stare blind at the sun
Feel the warmth in your head Stare blind at the sun
Feel the warmth in your eyes
With you in mind, with you in time

Stare blind at the sun
Feel the warmth in your head
