

It's Only Love

Sam Gopal

I take you walking on the sands to watch the sleeping sea
And walking in the dampened woods to touch the singing trees
And all the things my eyes can say your eyes will surely hear
Believe me or believe me not, the meaning is crystal clear
All the things I'm saying baby, it's only love

We talk about the things you see and things you want to see
I will show you just what scene I'm on, or did you just see me
And in the wind the seabirds cry and in the tree the branches sang
The words are in the book of pages, written there to see
You read the stories in my eyes baby, its only love

Hey listen these are my words, Don't you see the meaning clear
Can't you tell my words are saying, It's only love

When the sun is falling westward, to the crimson sea
We are chasing steps along the sands, singing to the breeze
Your eyes are beckoning to me and your arms are open wide
The night has throw up pools of stars to the darkening skies
And the wind is whispering softly, it's only love
