Famine Wolf

Between the Buried and Me

Grind down
Blind taste
Dripping ideas turn against our will
Swallow the chosen soulOne Animal
Once lived for lifeHuman mist rise
Sweet devouring teeth are sharpened
Swallow the chosen soulOne Animal
Once lived for life
One Animal
Once lived for lifeThe fifth resonating host
Sweaty palmed inside constant alert
Blinking around the bubble of the paranoid
We are all that's left, we will be enough?
We are all that's left, we will be enough?The fifth resonating host
Sweaty palmed inside constant alert
Blinking around the bubble of the paranoid
We are all that's left, we will be enough?
We are all that's left, we will be enough?One Animal
Once lived for life
One Animal
Once lived for lifeScour the earth, turn the dirt red
Scour the earth, turn the dirt redAnchored mind wind, across the fog
We disgrace the pupils sightA homeless meat the street markets replaced their souls
Ripping our oldest thoughts
Society has me out cold
It has me out in the cold
It has me out in the cold
It has me out in the cold
It has me out in the coldMove the flesh over this rotten bone
One more day
Move the flesh over this rotten bone
One more day
One more day
Move the flesh over this rotten bone
One more day
Move the flesh over this rotten bone
One more day
One more day
