Back To Nowhere

Dropping Daylight

tick tock of the clock make a wish but the time wont stop i saw the glow of city lights never thought id say that they shined too bright could it be, that its me?
looking back to nowhere, back to nowhere.im sick of standing in line waiting turns is a waste of my time im tired of holding my tongue when nothings said then nothing gets done
could it be, that its me?
looking back to nowhere, back to nowhere.fine, take your time, i will be here waiting, be here waiting fine, ill be fine, ill just stand here waiting, stand here waiting.one more for the road liquid hot to melt the cold if i caught one last stare could i keep myself from looking back to nowhere?
looking back to nowhere, back to nowhere.fine, take your time i will be here waiting, be here waiting fine, ill be fine ill just stand here waiting, stand here waitingcould it be, that its me?
looking back to nowhere, back to nowhere?
