

Frontin' On Me

Velvet Empire

Saw you on the corner standing there,
Now I wonder who you're talking to,
Will I ever know, ever know?
And will you ever show?
You're talking on your cell phone all this time,
I thought I could depend on you.
When you said you'd be tonight with me,
That you'd do right by me. You've been checkin' all this time,
Better get yourself in line
Cos' hangin with the fellas no it ain't no crime,
Girl I just wanna be me. No breakin', fakin' no mistakin',
I just want some honesty from you boy,
Stop frontin' on me, you're buggin me.
You better wake up, make up, get ready for a shake up,
I just want some honesty from you boy,
Cos' you're frontin' on me, stop buggin' me. I really want a love that's bona fide, yes I'm looking for a boy that's true,
Will I ever find, ever find,
Someone to blow my mind.
Cos' I don't really think you understand,
All that I've been going though,
Cos' every night that you'd be stressin' me,
Yeah you be frettin' me. You've been thinkin' I get down,
But I never play around,
Just hangin' with the fellas when I'm chillin' downtown,
Girl I just want you to see. No breakin', fakin' no mistakin',
I just want some honesty from you boy,
Stop frontin' on me, you're buggin me.
You better wake up, make up, get ready for a shake up,
I just want some honesty from you boy,
Cos' you're frontin' on me, stop buggin' me. [x2]
You've been checkin' all this time,
Better get yourself in line
Cos' hangin with the fellas no it ain't no crime, I just want some honesty from you boy,
Stop frontin' on me, you're buggin me.
You better wake up, make up, get ready for a shake up,
I just want some honesty from you boy,
Cos' you're frontin' on me, stop buggin' me. No breakin', fakin' no mistakin',
I just want some honesty from you boy,

Stop frontin' on me, you're buggin me.
You better wake up, make up, get ready for a shake up,
I just want some honesty from you boy,
Cos' you're frontin' on me, stop buggin' me. [x2]
