

I Am Revolution

Last In Line

I am the wolf, I am the lion
The iron first that fuels your fires
A thrill of war on the horizon
So fall around and let us break the silence
Right before the fall, today our time has come I am revolution
Raise your hands and fight
I am revolution
I am the sound of freedom screaming in the night
Give me your heart, yearning to be free
Your criminal lives, just give them all to me
Give me your soul and everything that you believe
I'll give you hope, then bring you to your knees
Right before the fall, today that day has come I am revolution
Raise your hands and fight
I am revolution
I am the sound of freedom screaming in the night
In the night
I am revolution
Raise your hands and fight
I am revolution
I am the sound of freedom screaming in the night
I am revolution
I am revolution
I am revolution
I am revolution

Revolution Though we may die... today, we live
