Long Hair

Drowners

Barely nineteen, I see you every night
Whispering 'between us girls
I don't think of him that often anymoreAll the girls had long hair
All the boys had long hair
And you were missing outOnce a week i'll keep an evening free for you
Does he teach you things
Does he teach you things
That you'd never do for me?
I know what you meanAll the girls had long hair
All the boys had long hair
And you were missing out
(x3)
