Edge from Falling

Verse:
I see her, tears falling from her eyes.
I reach out, to hold her when she cries.
I want, to take her pain away.
I cannot, erase this tragedy.Chorus:
Try to hold on now,
When your world crashes down.
And you will find love upholds.
You are made in the image,
Theres strength for the helpless.
youre never alone.Verse:
Closed in, she tries to hide her shame.
Shes convinced, hope is just too late.
Broken heart, carries her pain inside.
Desperate, she cries all through the night.Chorus:
Just try to hold on now,
When your world crashes down.
And you will find love upholds.
You are made in the image,
Theres strength for the helpless.
youre never alone.
Never alone.
You're beautiful,
So wonderful,
Made in the image of The King.
