

The Rumour

Olivia Newton-John

Holding back 'cause there's nowhere to go
Hearing things that I don't want to know
But the rumor flies high
Somehow it seems to get back to my heart
And it lies They say things that I don't understand
And I know they have got the upper hand
But the rumor flies high
Somehow it seems to get back to my heart
And lies and, oh, but I believe The rumor, it can turn it all around
Yeah, the rumor, it can knock you to the ground
Oh rumor, well hold on baby and let's not cry
'Cause somehow it seems to get back to my heart and lies
Did you hear the rumor? Holding back 'cause there's nowhere to go
They say whatever he can't see well he'll never know
But the rumor flies high
Somehow it seems to get back to my heart
And it lies, oh, but I believe The rumor, it can turn it all around
Yeah, the rumor, it can knock you to the ground
Oh rumor, well hold on baby and let's not cry
'Cause somehow it seems to get back to my heart and lies It lies and gets right back to you
And, oh, but I believe The rumor, it can turn it all around
Yeah, the rumor, it can knock you to the ground
The rumor, well hold on baby and let's not cry
And, oh, but I believe The rumor, it can turn it all around
Yeah, the rumor, it can knock you to the ground
Oh rumor, well hold on baby and let's not cry
'Cause somehow it seems to get back to my heart and lies Did you hear the rumor?
Yes it lies
Did you hear the rumor?
Yes you lied
('Cause somehow its seems to get back to my heart) Rumor, rumor, rumor, rumor
Somehow it lies
Yes the rumor lies
How it somehow seems to get back to my heart
