

No Brains

Sum 41

Can't step in my way
Head first and love and dismay
It's like beating the dead
I can't stop going out on my head
Whatever this could be I never know
I never said it'd be the end all to be all I hate you today
I can't find a way
Don't drag me down now Goodbye
I've had enough frustration
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead end situation
Is just not worth my time It's no better today
I never thought it would end up this way
You've got something to say
Don't want to hear it if it gets in my way All this confusion is so overwhelmed
Disillusion seems so clear now
Can't find your conclusion to supporting evolution
Not all Things aren't what they appear So what's the point of this now
I know you too well
We're running backwards Goodbye
I've had enough frustration
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead end situation
Is just not worth my time But waiting so frustrating
I'm so sick of
All this tension not to mention
I'm so sick of
Can't take it
We won't make it
Just save yourself this trouble
Can't take it quite for yourself
Cause I'm just fine You speak for all of us when
You can't be heard
I bet you haven't listened
To not one word
You speak for all of us when
You can't be heard

I bet you haven't listened
To not one word Goodbye
I've had enough frustration
I won't get stuck
Goodbye
This dead end situation
Is just not worth my time But waiting so frustrating
I'm so sick of
I'm so sick of
Sick of you
