

Carnival Game

Cheap Trick

It was a masquerade at Mardi Gras
That was the only trip that I recall
Every time I turned around at all
There was you
Some days are easier said than done
Always expecting something's wrong
I'd rather live alone than drag this on
Take your time, please lay your hands on me
Don't wanna be alone, oh no
A mask behind the face and then you're gone
Oh yeah, comes a time when you're better off alone, you're on your own
I've got a kaleidoscope of memories
Visions of you locked up inside of me
Can't you see

We once collided like a broken wheel
So undecided what was real
Maybe a crash somehow has sex appeal
Whatever turns you on
Take your time, please lay your hands on me
Don't wanna be alone, oh no
A mask behind a face and then you're gone
Oh yeah, comes a time when you're better off alone
One down, one to go
Oh no, playin' in a carnival your time is gone
One down, one to go
Oh no, playin' in a carnival, you're all alone
One down, one to go
Oh no, you're on your own
