There is no reason we should give in
There is no reason we should start
We are breaking down our hope our sane
Cause this is all we've gotThe picture is never perfect
We were broken from the start but the pieces fit together now
It's better than if it fall apart

Don't stop now

Can't stop now

Cause all we gotta do is run
Keep running from the setting sun*
There is no reason we should give in
There is no reason we should start
