Brickwall

Trilo

Looking for an answer, tough shit there's none to give
It's gone astray, lost on the way
Looking for the choices, the sale's on every day
Bargains galore, all lost todayThe same brickwall
No matter where you stand
The same brickwallNo answers, no choices, just silence and darkness
No truth, no lies, no nothing, surprise, surprise
It's lost away, it's gone astray again
Lost on the way, nothing to sayThe same brickwall
No matter where you stand
The same brickwallNo answers, no choices, just silence and darkness
No truth, no lies, no nothing, surprise, surprise
It's lost away, it's gone astray
Lost on the way, nothing to sayThe same brickwall
No matter where you stand
The same brickwallNo matter how you try, you're just heading for a fall
No matter how you try, no matter what you say
