

Never Gonna Break Up

Ryan Leslie

Oh baby, pretty girl
Wasted so much time for you
Oh, I think I must have been blind for you
Almost lost my mind for you
Tell myself I would die for you
I hit that ball thinkin'
How am I gonna get you back all weekend, yeah
Guess that's your decision
You should think about what you're missin'
All day, all night, when it's the right time
I'mma find my baby, yeah
And I'm thinkin' like all day all night
If it's the right time I'mma find my baby, yeah
So I get the finest clothes I could find on retail
And I try to pay attention to every single detail
I just want a girl that still looks good with no make up
And when I find her I'd promise I'm never gonna break up
Never gonna break up, never gonna break up
Never gonna break up, never gonna break up
Never gonna break up, never gonna break up
No, no
All this time I lost on you
Played it cool mention to floss on you
Had a few girls I turned down
Wished I knew they woulda learn now
I hope you yearn for me
Hopin' that your loneliness burns for me
'Cause I'm okay now
Gimme time I'mma show you how to get down, yeah
I'mma get the finest clothes I could find on retail
And I try to pay attention to every single detail
I just want a girl that still looks good with no make up
And when I find her I'd promise I'm never gonna break up
Never gonna break up, never gonna break up
Never gonna break up, never gonna break up
Never gonna break up, never gonna break up
No, no
And if you're wonderin' how I'm doing, baby
You could be sure that

I learned a lesson from you girl, oh yeah
And if you're wonderin' what I'm doin', babe
Trust me, I got it, I'm takin' care of me, hey
Never gonna break up
If it's true love, never gonna break up
Never gonna break up, I ain't gonna break up, no
Never gonna break up, never gonna break up, oh, oh no
I'mma get the finest clothes I could find on retail, yeah
And I try to pay attention to every single detail
I just want a girl that still looks good with no make up
And when I find her I'd promise I'm never gonna break up
Break up, break up, never gonna break up
Break up, break up, never gonna break up
Break up, break up, never gonna break up
Break up, break up, never gonna break u
