Looking For

East 17

Oh, I'm looking for you woman
With you love to share my life
Don't cry, 'cos there ain't no reason
I'd die do anything for youYou are my little honey chip
You can make me skip, jump up, back flip
What can I do for U, 'cause I love U
To the max, it's true
Can we wine and dine, oh golly gosh
What a rush to my head being with you
You're the sun on a shiny day
U are my light alright tonight
And you make things bright, right?
Oh, no, not hazy
So take my love and I'll be crazy
My lady baby, never faze meCan I talk to you today, tomorrow
Can I borrow you for a little while
No need to trouble you, just to kiss and cuddle U
Introduce U to the crew
Sip of red wine, drink a brew
Tonight seems like I'm high, like a kite
On a flight, it seems so right
You're so exotic, erotic
Put you deep down in my pocket
Fly you away in a rocket
Don't knock it
Don't try to stop it now
