Authentic Pyrrhic Remission

Of Montreal

So much violence in my head
How are we still alive?
Intermission is under control
(No it's not, don't you ever stop lying, damn)I love how we're learning from each other
You are such a positive
You're so empoweringIn your hands I'm quite simply
A different instrument
And you're the only one who ever put money on me
You think that I forget so easilyYou emit a charge
I know we're of the same tribe
The fall's our most productive seasonStill a crippling fear of __ Caesar and we're slightlyActually I want to help you invoke
The architect(incomplete)
