

Stronger

Z02

Picture on the wall says you are the one
I gave you everything I had to give
Waited for a call I knew would never come
Between the lines aint no way to live In your touch I felt its over
You lead me on the way you do, you done me wrong
I had enough, call it closure
Baby now Im over you and Im movin on, movin on (Chorus)
Now Im stronger and unbroken, I dont need you anymore
When you left me I was cryin, now Im stronger than before Im in a new direction as far as I can tell
You had your fun, you played me for a fool
You look good in your deception, seems you wear it well
You played the game but you dont play by the rules Like a rock, your heart grows colder
No more wonderin what to do when the feelings gone
I had enough, call it closure
Baby now Im over you and Im movin on (Chorus) Now you made me believe that you never would leave
But you knew it all along
Honey, now that I know Im fine with letting you go
Cause without you is where I belong
