Try To Be

NewFound Road

I watch as my big dreams walk behind me they trick they scheme they tease felt like as a young girl I barely knew exactly what I wanna be, what I wanna be, what I wanna be what I wanna be,
and as the real world comes to its feet to shake my hand to greet
With coldness and eloquence, I'm never tired to in distress, but I'm supposed to be you and I try to be you,
but I thought I'd be you, but I'll never be.

May as well just be me.
May as well just be me.
May as well just be me.
May as well just be me.

Mamamamamamamamama...

All I wanted,
was a need (to be wanted.)
Mountains revived into the night
My mind prepares for flight.
(was forgotten)
let's..the confidence
I dream myself the..
I'm post to be you, but I shouldn't be you but I couldn't be you, but I try to be.

May as well just be me.
May as well just be me.
May as well just be me.
May as well just be me.
