So Long

Goo Goo Dolls

Don't take much lookin' back to know I took my coffee black then
Nothin's different now but nothin' seems the same and it's alright
Your optimistic views, your hundred dollar running shoes and Carpel tunnel syndrome we all had a laugh about it
I'd love to stick around but I gotta tell you all
So long
Oh so long, oh so long
But I didn't wanna tell you all so long
Don't take much lookin' back to know I faked that heart attack then
And nothin's different now but nothin' seems the same and it's alright
You always spoke the truth from Circa disco, Abba boots and
All that showbiz talk, oh we all had a laugh about it
I'd love to stick around but, I gotta tell you all

So long
Oh so long, oh so long
But I didn't wanna tell you all so long
Oh so long, oh so long
But I didn't wanna tell you all so long
I gotta get back to where I belong
Long
Oh so long, oh so long
But I didn't wanna tell you all so long
So long
Oh so long, oh so long
But I didn't wanna tell you all so long
