Promise You

Kutless

Tears wash the blood off of my face
Why did it have to be this way?
I?ve taken the last beating from you
This I promise you
I'm waiting for the sun to rise
And make the darkness go away
The time has come to say goodbye
And God will help me find a way
Just to let go of the fear
I can?t deny these thoughts of hate
The poison adding to my shame
Forgiveness can?t take scars away
But I forgive you anyway
I'm waiting for the sun to rise
And make the darkness go away
The time has come to say goodbye
And God will help me find a way
Just to let go of the fear, let go
I had enough, I took too much
But this I swear I will pray for you
I had enough, I took too much
But this I swear I will pray for you
I'm waiting for the sun to rise
And make the darkness go away
The time has come to say goodbye
And God will help me find a way
I'm waiting for the sun to rise
And make the darkness go away
The time has come to say goodbye
And God will help me find my way
As I let go of the fear
