Sleep Song

Teresa Doyle

Sometimes I feel like I'll never fall asleep
I feel helpless
You can't help me fall asleep
I like to dream
But it scares me to think
That at some point
I'll forget when the dream began
I just got out of my bed
Covered in sweat
I was angry
Cause you kept your hand on my chest
Don't touch me
I'm concentrating on sleep

On what I'll dream
But I can't keep my eyelids shut
Look at me sleeping
I'm really sleeping
Look at me dreaming
I'm so happy
Look at me sleeping
I'm really sleeping
Look at me dreaming
I'm so happy
