In The Sun

Michael Stipe feat Chris Martin

Rain used to be my boyfriend
We could sing, we could dance
We could last in romance
Thought it would never end
No, I never saw it coming
Thought shade was my friend
'Till she left with my man
They didn't give a damn
Now the sun's at my door again
Really don't wanna let him in
But I'm feeling something deep within
And he keeps knock, knock, knocking
Maybe I should give him a chance
Go ahead and let him in
Let him just take my hand
So we could go walk, walk, walking
In the sun, it's a place I thought I'd never be
In the sun, like a kid on a playground
I'm finally free
So I'm a just let go (let go)
Yeah, I'm a just let go (let go)
And I start, start to crack the door open
It was green, it was blue, it was me, it was you
And I felt myself fall in
Now I'm wrapped around your finger
Just a glimpse of your light
Give me joy in my life, joy in my life
Now I'm staring in your eyes again
Too bad that I let you in

Still feeling that thing within
It keeps on knock, knock, knocking
Glad I gave you a chance
To be that better man
So boy just take my hand
So we could go walk, walk, walking
In the sun, it's a place I thought I'd never be
In the sun, like a kid on a playground
I'm finally free

So I'm a just let go (let go)
So I'm a just let go (let go)
In the sun, it's a place I thought I'd never be
In the sun, like a kid on a playground
I'm finally free
So I'm a just let go (let go)
So I'm a just let go (let go)
Cause what was I thinking?
What was I thinking?
I'll never let you go
Cause you're way too beautiful
No more wishing on what I was missing
You're the one who's just begun
Living our lives in the sun
In the sun, thought I would never be here
In the sun, feeling so free
Let go, so I'm a just let go (let go)
In the sun, in the sun (in the sun)
I think I'll just let go (let go)
Let go, let go, let go, let go
