

New Pin (edit)

Oceansize

In goodness wake, Ill always say I do
That its all for you
And the tricks Id turn would always shine right through
Its all for you Like a stream overflowing and unpredictable
A brand new confidence like a new king
Like a breeze levitating to raise a sunken soul
Until the surface shines like a new pin What junkie says is not what junkie do
But its all for you
And the tricks he turns will always shine right through
But its all for you Like a dream synchronizing with the one I miss the most
A concentrated love from a new queen
Like a wave stabilizing, I walk a tighter rope
And my new victim shines like a new pin
