Shine

Menswear

Lowest common denomination
Karma-Cola thirst
I have come too far for this
It's a curse

Prey on those without direction
Independence void
I want to play your games today
You're annoyed

I will fly someday
I will rise like Lazarus
I will shine
Color me they paint by numbers

Pen another verse
Judas clowns they bring me down
And it hurts
I will fly someday

I will rise like Lazarus
I will shine
