Oceans

Johan

I've been hanging on so long
I've been living on my own
Waiting for youI've been helpless since you've gone
Getting tired of being alone
Keep thinking of you
Cannot sleep, you never call
Can't believe how deep I've fallen -
Into youSo if you're lonely
Then I will swim the ocean
Pull me underwater
Find me crawling on the ocean floor
If you need me
Then I will cross the ocean
To walk upon the water
The tides will bring me to the ocean shoreIf you want me
Why don't you give a sign?You live in a different world
And all the seas that want to cheat from me
Getting close but I can't reach you
There's a giant gap between us -
Can't you see?I can't take it anymore
I'll never make it to your door -
I might drownBut if you're lonely
Then I will swim the ocean
Pull me underwater
Find me crawling on the ocean floor
If you need me
Then I will cross the ocean
Walk upon the water
The tides will bring me to the ocean shoreIf you want me -
(Do you want me?)I don't need no time
I believe in time
Healing wounds that fall from the past -
Leaves us coldI believe you're mine
I believe I'm fine
Then again, I'm lost without you now
Gotta get to you somehow
Before I drownI can't take it anymore
I'll never make it to your door -
I might drownBut if you're lonely

Then I will swim the ocean
Pull me underwater
Find me crawling on the ocean floor
If you need me
Then I will cross the ocean
To walk upon the water
The tides will bring me to the ocean shoreIf you want me -
(But do you want me?)
