Waterfall

Eyeshine

You tell me
Time and time again
That we're the end
Of our descentAnd I feel like
A shooting star
That's gone too far
From youTonight, I feel right
When I'm by you're side, when I'm by your side
Tonight, I feel right
When I'm by you're side, when I'm by your sideIn between the smallest lines
I see your signs
Even though they're fineAnd I feel like
A shooting star
That's gone too far
From youTonight, I feel right
When I'm by you're side, when I'm by your side
Tonight, I feel right
When I'm by you're side, when I'm by your sideAnd after all you're a
Waterfall crashing down, crashing down
And after all you're a
Waterfall crashing down, crashing downAnd all my life I tried to find you
And every breath I breathe is of you
I refuse to let you go, I refuse to let you go
And all my life I tried to find youAfter all you're a
Waterfall crashing down, crashing down
And after all you're a
Waterfall crashing down, crashing downTonight, I feel right (crashing down from above, I can feel all your love)
When I'm by you're side, when I'm by your side (crashing down from above)
Tonight, I feel right (crashing down from above, I can feel all your love)
When I'm by you're side, when I'm by your side (crashing down from above)
Tonight
