

Blood

Breaking Benjamin

[Verse 1]

Every endless word, I have nothing here
Sick of all that was, tired of all that is
Every hated love I have broken in
Sick of fucking up, tired of falling in[Pre-Chorus]
And all that I regret
I have before, I will again[Chorus]
It's over now. Are you running away?
I come apart as I lay in your way
It's in my blood, let the sky fall down
I won't let grow, my oblivion

[Verse 2]

Counting every breath, I am my own fear
Nothing ever was, nothing ever is
Every halo lost, I am worn within
Nothing left to harm, nothing left to live[Pre-Chorus]
And all that I regret
I have before, I will again[Chorus]
It's over now. Are you running away?
I come apart as I lay in your way
It's in my blood, let the sky fall down
I won't let grow, my oblivion[Refrain]
Face the monster I've become
(And fight, your hate will not become)
In the ground we rise to burn
(Maybe your life will let me love)
Forgive my heart

[Outro]

It's over now
I come apart
It's in my blood, let the sky fall down
I won't let grow, my oblivion
