It's In My Head

Grim Skunk

It's in my head, I can't take it no more
Like they said, don't really got a choice
Do it right, or you just might force us to make
An example of you, and torture you too
It's in my blood, vengeance demands their lives
I'll do it right, I'll use them as my sacrifice
You did me wrong, and now you're gonna pay the price
I'm gonna torture you too and suffering
Round and round the dragon's feet
Crows and blackbirds screaming
See the fallen angels weep
On this hallowed evening
Pledge your allegiance, cross your heart, church kell's ring
Darkness falls, the ancient one spreads his wings
Teardrops fall from the virgin's eye, the angels sing
