

Oh Oh Oh

Matt Corby

All the tears, they taste of salt and yesterday we had to talk
I wonder now how you stayed around
I guess it's now That's just how we break
I underestimate the damage that I've made with you All my fears, they're all my fault
You drove away I guess I'll walk
I don't know how you stayed around
I guess it's now Assume I'll hold it down
You thought I'd finally reach out of the rabbit hole
And I'm free from all I know
I assumed that day I'd be there with you
That's just how we learn to try to discern before every twist and turn
With you
