

She's Everything You Want

Billy Gilman

Can't you hear your heart? It's talkin' to your brain
A little voice inside you keeps callin' out her name
You can only lose if you start to hesitate
So why ignore an open door showin' you the way? A heart can't shake it when it feels that rush
A heart can't fake it when it needs that touch
A magic potion, locomotion, you can't ever stop
Yeah, a heart can't take it when she's everything you want You can't stop your feet from walkin' to her door
Every time you leave her, you keep on wantin' more
You think you're in control but who you're tryin' to kid?
When you're on your knees, beggin'
Please give me one more kiss Yeah, a heart can't shake it when it feels that rush
A heart can't fake it when it needs that touch
A magic potion, locomotion, you can't ever stop
Yeah, a heart can't take it when she's everything you want She's everything, she's everything, she's everything you need
She's everything, she's everything, she's all you ever dreamed Can't play it cool, actin' like a fool when you're tryin' to deny
You'd do anything an' everything to be by her side 'Coz a heart can't shake it when it feels that rush
A heart can't fake it when it needs that touch
A magic potion, locomotion, you can't ever stop
Yeah, a heart can't take it when she's everything you want Yeah, a heart can't take it when she's everything you want
