Black All Over

Lollipop Lust Kill

I haven't slept in weeks, not one single wink
Every moments like an eternity
Clocks, louder every chime, speaks to me in rhyme
Tell me, is it time to let my feelings go?
Black, black all over, black all over
Life is nothing but a dream to me
Black all over, black all over
Tragedy my reality
I've lost touch with my thoughts, twisting my life pulls
Pushing me farther away
Locked in I can't get out, free to run about
Tell me, is it time to let my feelings go?
Black, black all over, black all over
Life is nothing but a dream to me

Black all over, black all over
Tragedy my reality
Do you believe, you can be the one, be the one
Shining brightly underneath a dark deadened sun?
All we are are single numbers
It's time to count the single numbers
My time has come and gone, run, everybody run
This game is over and I'm done, run, everybody run
My time has come, its time, everybody run
Black, black all over, black all over
Life is nothing but a dream to me
Black all over, black all over
Tragedy my reality
