

All Eyes Are Different

Shudder to Think

All eyes are different from the gold ones to blue to brown I want yours to stick aroundAll eyes are different from the gold ones to blue to brown
I want yours to stick aroundJust trying to make you say yes Just trying to make you say yesAll eyes are different from the gold ones to blue to brown
I want yours to stick aroundThere's something I never told you I'm two loving arms to e'er enfold youand scared stiff in loveAnd there's one I need about you it's your assurance to never doubt youI'm scared stiff in loveI won't scream I want a sweet night sweet sleep tight turn on your pillow lights click off see?
sweet beams
all you've got to do honeydew is dream on me
ZZZZZZ
