

Broken Little Souls

All the Little Pieces

Verse 1:

Looking at it from a shattered view because you think it's true but they're only trying to break you don't listen to the words they say don't go that way they're leading you into the darkness they're tying you into a harness

Chorus:
I'm just piece of broken glass in an old abandoned house

I am torn apart Don't let them break your, don't let them break your Don't let them break your heart

Verse 2:
When we look at the stars from afar
we think it's all ok if we look at it from a deeper perspective then we'll start doubting everything nothing is what it appears in the middle of the fog nothing is clear

Chorus
Verse 3:
We are just broken little souls and as time unfolds we begin to lose control everyone is the same we play stupid little games and risk our hearts don't let yourself be torn apart
