Lucky All My Life

Racoon

she calls and send you, stuff you letters yeah you can sweet talk all you like but pretty word dont make it better, you let the fire burn all night yeah all night the front door was open, I left the keys in guess Ive been lucky all my life now shes so fed up with my easiness, I wont get any tonightI dont know why I gave my love away Shure dont know why you took the bate Maybe the balance seem to sudden a bit more than it did to hating me
I apologize for everything, for all the times Ive done you wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong
But I gathered all my dreams around you, hope youll put em with your own, where they belohohong(chorus) okay, okay, okay my lovely Ill always look for other ways to say, to say, to say your lovely
Ill always look for better ways to say that I love you anyway
Ooh I love you anayway Whoa(chorus)
So I say, okay, okay, okay my lovely
Ill always look for other ways to say, to say, to say your lovely
Ill always look for better ways to say that I love you anyway Oohhhhh I love you anaywayI love you anyway..
