San Jose

The Mavericks

Star lit skies, Texas eyes
Looking down on me tonight
Across the street, strangers meet
Hoping to catch a rising starYou and I will stay up and wake up and then
One more day, come what may at the San JoseSpend the night, become the night
You never run out of things to do
Moonlight swims, midnight sins
And rooms for a secret rendezvousYou and I, will stay up and wake up and then
One more day, come what may at the San JoseOne more day, come what may Steal away at the San Jose
