

Love Will Burn

Harriet

Fire will you by the hand,
Carve a life out of a man,
'Til he never loves again.
Fears, they don't stand a chance,
Love took everything he had,
'Til there was nothing left.
It smothers inside,
'Til the flame comes alive,
And the smoke will swallow your pride,
Try to breath in the flames and pray for the rain,
You run, but you won't survive,
And love will burn,
Love will burn.

Wounds will heal over time,
Leaving scars you can hide,
But they'll always remind you,
It smothers inside,
'Til the flame comes alive,
And the smoke will swallow your pride,
Try to breath in the flames and pray for the rain,
You run, but you won't survive,
And love will burn,
Love will burn,
Love will burn.

[Instrumental]

[Ah]

[Burn]

And the smoke will swallow your pride,
Try to breath in the flames and pray for the rain,
You run, but you won't survive,
And love will burn,
Love will burn,
Love will burn.

Lyrics Submitted by Alexis

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>