With Deepest Regrets...

Dry Kill Logic

Let's call this everything what is seems A violent distortion of ALL my dreams
Just to spite the cold that seems to feed
And still it burns inside of me
When everything and nothing become the same And everyone's at fault but no one's to blame Question is- will you remain the same?Or will you half step you life away?
Now I'm lost in this without all the rest- it Seems so close but so far away
Fall in line or be what's forgotten
Hurts as much to say
NEVER NOTHING
And though I try so why do you give this away?So you will know this love I call a lie
Then you will say
so why do you give this away?
So you will know this love I call a lieDefining Definitions of what should be One part honest and two parts mean Believing nothing - seeing is all I need Judging for myself what will come for me when all of it is here it moves so slow
But I wonder will I know Planting all the seeds of doubt that growwhen these fields of hate take hold
Fall in line or be what's forgotten
Now I'm lost in this without all the rest- it Seems so close but so far away
Hurts as much to say
NEVER NOTHINGso why do you give this away?
And though I try
So you will know
this love I call a lie
Then you will say
so why do you give this away?
But with all things involving the dreamSo you will know this love I call a lie
The push/ pull is not what it seems The love/ hate of what it all means Has taken the life out of me and I know that it's so hard to find And then even harder to hide but it's yours to decideI'm lost in this without all the rest- it Seems so close but so far away

Fall in line or be what's forgotten
Hurts as much to say NEVER NOTHINGAnd though I try
so why do you give this away?
So you will know
Then you will say
this love I call a lie
So you will know this love I call a lie so why do you give this away?And though I try So you will know/
so why do you give this away?
this love I call a lie
Then you will say
So you will know this love I call a lieso why do you give this away?
