So So Cold

Hot Hot Heat

Into the rain we'll run out under the storm with lightning on it's way into a tree we'll carve our names and there we'll stay forever this town was meant for [believing] so go while they were sleeping watching waiting thinking but never sayingall our lives the fire's burning but it's so so so so so cold in here all this time the fire's burning but it's so damn cold so stay up
we'll play our song
so stay upthese city walls they cage us

into the streets with midnight on it's way [?] and these empty [bottles/battles] where we'd hide forever this restless, reckless slow dance with reckless, restless romance watching, holding, thinking but never knowingall our lives the fire's burning but it's so so so so cold in here all this time the fire's burning but it's so damn cold so stay up we'll play our song

so stay up

we'll play our song[instrumental]all our lives the fire's burning but it's so so so so cold in here all this time

so stay up we'll play our song so stay up [and know that] all our lives the fire's burning but it's so so cold the fire's burning but it's so so cold [nothing's] burning in here it's so so so so cold
