Kevin T. Bowman

I've been biding my time
Been so subtly kind
I've got to think so selfishly
'Cos you're the face inside of meI've been biding my days
You see evidently it pays
I've been a friend with unbiased views
Then secretly lust after youSo now, you feel rusty
You're bored and bemusedYou wanna do someone else
So you should be by yourself
Instead of here with me secretlyTrying hard to think pure
Bloody hard when I'm raw
You're talking out so sexually
'Bout boys and girls and your friggin' dreamsSo now, you feel lusty
You're hot and confusedYou wanna do someone else
So you should be by yourself
Instead of here with me secretlySo now, you've been busted
You're caught feeling usedYou had to do someone else
You should've been by yourself
You had to do someone else
You should've been by yourself
Instead of here with me secretlySecretly, secretly
